

Frank Bachenheimer

Satisfying collectors like YOU since 1975

Who is Frank Bachenheimer ?

Like so many of my clients, I started collecting at around the age of seven tearing stamps off envelopes and encouraging relatives to do the same. When I became “sophisticated” (around the age of ten), I wrote to the (you know who) stamp company for their five cent approvals. After college and a walk down the aisle I got serious and specialized in “only” three countries; United States, Germany Empire, and Palestine. But the family insisted on having food and clothing so I narrowed it down to the Saar and became a serious collector and exhibitor.

My first venture into dealing in stamps came in 1975 when I established “The Saar Philatelist” as a mail-order only business. In the late eighties I began to do stamp shows and started building up the United States, United States Revenues and Possessions stock that I have today. I belong to the APS, ARA, ASDA and the Collectors Club of Chicago. Oh yes, I spent 30 years with Sears Roebuck and Co. where I learned the secret of success:
